Greater Vancouver region

Lights at LaFarge: Metro Vancouver's largest free outdoor winter lights display, featuring a 1.6-km pathway filled with dazzling lights and re-imagined displays. The display runs until Monday, February 16, 2026—stay tuned to our website and social channels for updates throughout the season.

Pathways are lit and user-friendly for visitors of all abilities. The 1.6-km trail is flat and mostly paved, accessible by strollers and mobility devices, although there is one section of finely packed gravel.

 Starlight Skating Rink: The rink is made from synthetic ice, perfect for a community in the lower mainland of BC that doesn't get so cold to form thick, strong ice, which also happens to make outdoor activities that much more enjoyable!

The Village of Harrison Hot Springs owns and maintains the rink.

North/Cariboo regions

Artists Social - Prince Rupert Library:

1st and 3rd Wednesday of the Month - $0

Wednesday Artist Social is a place where artists can come work in a space together for a few hours with no instruction provided. This is a great opportunity to meet up and chat with other creatives in your community, get advice, critiques or work on your own with some company. Bring your supplies, some inspiration and your latest works! All people and all skill levels welcome of course!

visitprincerupert.com/event/artist-social/2025-11-19/

Theatre Northwest - Prince George:

We produce modern, engaging plays – at least half of which are written by Canadian playwrights – and we're passionate about elevating local voices, diverse casting, and creating accessible experiences for everyone.

theatrenorthwest.com/

North Peace Leisure Pool Sensory Swims:

Dimmed lights, background music is turned off, no PA or radio announcements, no use of noisy equipment, quiet rooms available, limited number of bathers/patrons, no waves, no features, no noisy toys, extra lifeguard staff, staff only blow whistles in case of emergency.
